Aug 15 -- Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

There will be a High Mass on August 15 at 7:00 PM to celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. There will be no morning Mass that day. The US bishops' conference has decided that, for all Holy Days of Obligation falling on a Saturday or Monday except for Christmas and Immaculate Conception, the obligation to assist at Mass is commuted. Nevertheless, all are invited to assist at Mass on that day, the principal and greatest feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Prayer and Sacrifice for the Dead

"The time which interposes between the death of a man and the final resurrection holds souls in hidden retreats, accordingly as each is deserving of rest or of hardship, in view of what it merited when it was living in the flesh. Nor can it be denied that the souls of the dead find relief through the piety of their friends and relatives who are still alive, when the Sacrifice of the Mediator [Mass] is offered for them, or when alms are given in the Church. But these things are of profit to those who, when they were alive, merited that they might afterward be able to be helped by these things. There is a certain manner of living, neither so good that there is no need of these helps after death, nor yet so wicked that these helps are of no avail after death." - St. Augustine of Hippo

The practice of the church has always been to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the faithful departed. In the Roman Missal, certain days are set apart for a special commemoration of the deceased. In addition to the Mass of Burial, also called the exsequial Mass, Masses on the third, seventh, and thirtieth day after death were often offered, and special prayers exist in the Missal for this purpose. In addition, the anniversary of death is also especially noted, having its own proper orations in the Requiem Mass. These practices have surprising antiquity in the Roman Church. Fr. Jungmann elaborates:

"As early as 170 there is evidence... that in Asia Minor a Eucharistic memorial for the dead was conducted on the third day after burial; this took place at the grave. The anniversary commemoration is no more recent. In the fourth century the commemoration on the seventh day and on the thirtieth day became known..."

As Catholics we are obliged in justice to pray and offer sacrifice for the souls of our departed relatives, most especially for our parents and grandparents. We should endeavor as much as we are able to have Masses offered on the anniversaries of the deaths of our close relatives. We will not only free them from purgatory sooner, but we will give good example to those who come after us, so that we ourselves will be able to benefit from the sacrifices that they will offer on our behalf after we have passed into the next life.
