(Taken from Notes Made at the Conferences of Dom Prosper Guéranger).

The Priest next adds: una cum famulo tuo Papa nostro N. et Antistite nostro N. et omnibus orthodoxis, atque Catholicae et apostolicae fidei cultoribus. [together with Thy Servant N., our Pope, N. our Bishop, as also all orthodox believers and promoters of the Catholic and Apostolic faith.] So, there is not a Mass offered, but it benefits the whole Church; all her members participate therein, and care is taken, in the wording of this Prayer, to name them in particular. First of all comes the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth; and when His name is pronounced, an inclination of the head is made, to honour Jesus Christ, in the person of his Vicar. The only exception to this, is when the Holy See happens to be vacant. When the Pope himself is saying Mass, he here substitutes these words: Et me indigno servo tuo. [and me, your unworthy servant.] The Bishop does in like manner, in his own case, for next after the Pope, the Missal makes mention of the Bishop, in whose Diocese the Mass is being celebrated, so that in all places, Holy Church may be represented in her entirety. At Rome, there is no mention made of a Bishop, because the Pope himself is Bishop of Rome. In order that all her members without exception may be named, Holy Church here speaks of all the Faithful, calling them fidelium, that is to say, those who are faithful in observing the Faith of Holy Church, for to be included in those mentioned here, it is necessary to be in this Faith; it is necessary to be Orthodox, as she takes care to specify, omnibus orthodoxis, which means, those who think aright, who profess the Catholic Faith, the Faith handed down by the Apostles. By laying such stress on these words: omnibus orthodoxis atque catholicae et apostolicae fidei cultoribus, Holy Church would have us see, that she excludes from her prayer, on this occasion, those who are not of the household of the Faith, who do not think aright, who are not orthodox, who hold not their Faith from the Apostles.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Redeemer Radio Sharathon

Sacred Heart will be sponsoring an hour on the Redeemer Radio Sharathon on Friday October 27th from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. No doubt most, if not all, of the parish listens to Redeemer radio at least sometimes and know what excellent Catholic programming they offer. This programming and keeping the station open comes at a great cost and their main income source is the contributions of faithful Catholic listeners like you. Please listen this coming Friday the 27th and make a pledge so we can do our part to keep Redeemer radio on the air.

St Vincent de Paul Collection

There will be a special collection next Sunday, October 29th for the SVdP Society. This collection helps those in need in our area with their utilities and also with our food bank. Please use the Special Collections Envelope at the entrances if you would like to be acknowledged for your contribution. At the top of the Envelope mark SVdP Society along with your name. Thank You!

Scrip

Scrip is a very easy way to help the parish financially without increasing your Sunday contribution. Please take a look at the order forms to see if there are vendors that you frequent. If so, just fill in the amount you would like to purchase. You will receive a gift card back that can be used any time and never expires. Please submit the form with a check by dropping it in the collection basket. For any questions call the office at 260-744-2519. All orders must be prepaid and will be placed on Monday of each week. Due to processing costs, in order to make a few dollars we have to have a combined total of all orders come to $400 or more. Your small order can help to reach this threshold.

St. Vincent de Paul "Brown Bag Collection"

Please continue to help our food bank here at Sacred Heart by taking a brown bag and filling it with non perishable foods. Every Friday the Sacred Heart St Vincent de Paul Society has a food bank that is open to anyone living in the Fort Wayne area. We currently serve an average of 110 families. Please bring the filled bag back by the 2nd Sunday of each month and we will exchange it with another empty brown bag. This gives everyone an opportunity to help feed the poor in our city and work on our corporal works of mercy. Thank you in advance to all those who help us keep our food bank going.

SUBMITTED ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bishop Luers High School will be celebrating Veteran's Day 2017.

On Nov. 9, the school's Sodalitas service groups will create care packages with handwritten letters to be delivered to the homeless veterans and veteran patients at the Veterans Affairs Hospital at the Fort Wayne campus.

The Bishop Luers community is also inviting former USAF Capt. Guy D. Gruters as the keynote speaker to conclude the day's events. Captain Gruters was a POW for five years during the Vietnam War and speaks about his relationship with God. His book "Locked Up With God" details that relationship. He will be speaking to the Bishop Luers High School community starting promptly at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 9. The high school extends an invitation to all interested members, especially those who are active duty and retired service members of the United States military. If you are a veteran of the armed forces and would like to attend and/or participate with the day's events, please contact Mr. Jordan Miller at jmiller@bishopluers.org for further information regarding your attendance and/or participation.

To help fund the materials required to assemble the care package, Bishop Luers will be selling Veteran's Day T-shirts for $15. Ordering will take place from Oct. 13 – Nov. 1. All shirts will be fitted as standard adult sizes. Pick-up will be available on Nov. 8 or 9, depending on the size of the order. More details will be given on a future date regarding pick-up. All money is due at the time of ordering. If you would like to donate materials for the care packages, please check back with Mr. Miller at jmiller@bishopluers.org in the near future for a list provided by the VA Hospital.

University of Saint Francis invite you

The faculty of the Department of Philosophy and Theology at the University of Saint Francis invite you and your community to the upcoming lecture in our 2017-2018 fall lecture series.

Dr. Earl Kumfer, professor emeritus, will give the lecture, "Miracles and Belief," on Sunday, November 12, 2017 at 3 p.m. on the campus of the University of Saint Francis, Brookside Ballroom, 2701 Spring Street, Fort Wayne, IN.

Why believe? Do arguments, testimony or experience ground belief? Do miracles prove anything? Dr. Earl Kumfer, professor emeritus, will revisit the Resurrection narratives in light of Hume and Pascal to better grasp what happens at Pentecost. For additional information, contact Angie Springer at 260-399-7700 x8100 or aspringer@sf.edu or visit the website at <http://philosophy.sf.edu/lecture-series/>.

All are welcome and admission is free.
