COMMUNICANTES

(Taken from Notes Made at the Conferences of Dom Prosper Guéranger).

The Church Militant does not wish to approach the Holy Altar all alone. She has spoken to God, about the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, about the Bishop under whose Jurisdiction the Diocese is placed, then about all Catholics. Now, she wants to name another class of persons, belonging not to the Church Militant, but to the Church Triumphant. She is fully aware that those who are already enjoying the Glory of the Church Triumphant are not separated from her, but, on the contrary, that they are intimately united to her, forming but one and the same Church with her. It is true, the Church is divided into the Church Triumphant, the Church Suffering, and the Church Militant; nevertheless there is but one Church. We are to present ourselves, then, before God, in company not only of the Saints on earth, but of the Saints in Heaven.

For this reason, the Priest adds: Communicantes et memoriam venerantes. ... Yes, we do indeed venerate those whom we are about to name, and our motive for thus honouring their memory is that they have already attained eternal glory and God for evermore; we are united with them, and have direct communication with them, forming but one with them, in the Holy Sacrifice. And who are they?

First of all: in primis gloriosae semper Virginis Mariae, Genetricis Dei et Domini nostri Jesu Christi. ... Our Blessed Lady has every right to an honour peculiar to her alone, and Holy Church never fails to pay it to her; on the present occasion she expresses this her thought by the word in primis: it behoves us in the first place, to speak of Mary. Yes, of Mary who always was and ever is a Virgin: Virgin before Birth-giving, Virgin in Birth-giving, Virgin after Birth-giving; She is, moreover, the true Mother of God, of Him who is at the same time, Our Lord Jesus Christ. All these her titles give her special right to particular mention apart from all others.

SIXTH RESUMED SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Update from OLGS

Please pray for Nicholas and James Eichman, who continue to proceed towards the priesthood of Jesus Christ and will be receiving the minor orders of Exorcist and Acolyte at Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary on Saturday, Nov. 25.

Scrip

Scrip is a very easy way to help the parish financially without increasing your Sunday contribution. Please take a look at the order forms to see if there are vendors that you frequent. If so, just fill in the amount you would like to purchase. You will receive a gift card back that can be used any time and never expires. Please submit the form with a check by dropping it in the collection basket. For any questions call the office at 260-744-2519. All orders must be prepaid and will be placed on Monday of each week. Due to processing costs, in order to make a few dollars we have to have a combined total of all orders come to $400 or more. Your small order can help to reach this threshold.

St. Vincent de Paul "Brown Bag Collection"

Please continue to help our food bank here at Sacred Heart by taking a brown bag and filling it with non perishable foods. Every Friday the Sacred Heart St Vincent de Paul Society has a food bank that is open to anyone living in the Fort Wayne area. We currently serve an average of 110 families. Please bring the filled bag back by the 2nd Sunday of each month and we will exchange it with another empty brown bag. This gives everyone an opportunity to help feed the poor in our city and work on our corporal works of mercy. Thank you in advance to all those who help us keep our food bank going.

SUBMITTED ANNOUNCEMENTS

The faculty of the Department of Philosophy and Theology at the University of Saint Francis invite you and your community to the upcoming lecture in our 2017-2018 fall lecture series.

Sr. Felicity Dorsett, assistant professor of theology, will give the lecture, "Incarnate Wisdom Scripture" on Sunday, December 10, 2017 at 3 p.m. on the campus of the University of Saint Francis, Brookside Ballroom, 2701 Spring Street, Fort Wayne, IN.

Christmas focuses on Christ becoming incarnate, that is a human being. Sister Felicity Dorsett, OSF, assistant professor of theology, will explore the theme of incarnation in the prologue to John's gospel set in the overall context of Wisdom in the Bible.

You are also invited to join guest speaker Sr. Jeana Visel, OSB of Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology, when she gives a free public Lecture, "Recovering Beauty and Iconography in Catholic Churches Today", on Monday, December 4, 2017 at 7:30 pm at the downtown campus of the University of Saint Francis, Fort Wayne Historic Woman's Club, 826 Ewing Street, Fort Wayne, IN. Please use the Wayne Street entrance to the Woman's Club for easier access to the 3rd floor.

Icons are not just decorations limited to Eastern Orthodox Churches. They should play a central role in the Western Church that goes beyond mere decoration. Sr. Visel, a theologian and iconographer, will speak about her recent book "Icons in the Western Church: Toward a More Sacramental Encounter" which argues that the post-Vatican II Roman Catholic Church needs to give greater respect to the Eastern tradition of icons.

For additional information, contact Angie Springer at 260-399-7700 x8100 or aspringer@sf.edu or visit the website at <http://philosophy.sf.edu/lecture-series/>. All are welcome and admission is free.

The Month of November Dedicated to the Poor Souls

The souls in purgatory died in the mercy of God, this is why they are called holy; however, because they still had attachment to sin at the time of their death, they must undergo a spiritual purification of their souls before they are able to fully love God with their whole heart, mind, and soul for all eternity.

The holy souls are "saved souls" – they will enjoy the reward of heaven – but during their lives they were not the perfect souls that Christ commanded them to be (Mat. 5:48), and for which he provided every grace and means for them to become (2 Pet. 1:3). We are meant to die after living as saints. Those who die in the love of God but fall short of holiness due to habitual sinful clinging's must be pure before being admitted to the beatific vision, that is, the vision of God that the saints in heaven enjoy for all eternity.

Those in purgatory cannot pray for themselves, this is why they are also called "poor" souls. They can no longer merit anything for themselves (their opportunity for increasing in merit was during their earthly lives) and they must rely entirely on others to pray and make sacrifices on their behalf. As they are nevertheless part of the Communion of Saints, they depend upon us to help ease their suffering and quickly advance them through their purification so that they can join the saints in heaven.

Prayers for the faithful departed pleases God, who makes use of our prayers to help purify these souls that He loves. It is an act of charity that we can give for those we have known and loved, for our ancestors who gave us life, for those who were our benefactors, for those whose memory is lost, and for those who have no one else to pray for them.
