Friday, May 31: DOCUMENTARY FILM: Luther and the Protestant Reformation

A MUST SEE! This film is unlike any other documentary on Luther's life and the consequences of the Reformation, which reach even into our day in terms of the attempted protestantization of the Roman Catholic Church. It is well researched and reveals Luther's hidden biography with particular reference to lurid aspects unknown to his modern followers and serves as a dramatic framework in which the Protestant revolution's actual origins and shocking history are revealed, even including political power plays in the 16th century. The film depicts the immediate devastating effects of Luther's actions, as well as the shockwave of Protestantism stretching forward in history to the horrors and absurdities of our 20th and 21st centuries. Above all, this film presents facts that are widely silenced and removed from history textbooks.
