MILITIA OF ST. JOSEPH Terror of Demons - Are you tired of lukewarmness, restlessness and mediocrity in your life? Want to RADICALLY deepen your faith - taking your life to the NEXT LEVEL? Step up your game with other like-minded devout Catholic men looking for MORE - striving for SAINTHOOD daily together, as we grow fervently in devotion while waging spiritual combat under the banner of St. Joseph the Terror of Demons! As Christ told us in Matthew 7:14, the path to Salvation is narrow and hard, and FEW find it. The stakes are too high to pin eternity on anything less than 100% effort. Come to our monthly meeting FRIDAY 9/20/19 at Sacred Heart! Holy Mass at 6pm followed by food & meeting 6:30-8:30. For details and RSVP visit: www.MilitiaSJ.com or text 260-619-1373.

EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

(From the 1917 Catholic Encyclopedia)

The feast of the Exaltation of the Cross sprang into existence at Rome at the end of the seventh century. Allusion is made to it during the pontificate of Sergius I (687-701) but, as Dom Bäumer observes, the very terms of the text (Lib. Pontif., I, 374, 378) show that the feast already existed. It is, then, inexact, as has often been pointed out, to attribute the introduction of it to this pope. The Gallican churches, which, at the period here referred to, do not yet know of this feast of the 14th September, have another on the 3rd of May of the same signification. It seems to have been introduced there in the seventh century, for ancient Gallican documents, such as the Lectionary of Luxeuil, do not mention it; Gregory of Tours also seems to ignore it. According to Mgr. Duchesne, the date seems to have been borrowed from the legend of the Finding of the Holy Cross (Lib. Pontif., I, p. cviii). Later, when the Gallican and Roman Liturgies were combined, a distinct character was given to each feast, so as to avoid sacrificing either. The 3rd of May was called the feast of the Invention of the Cross, and it commemorated in a special manner Saint Helena's discovery of the sacred wood of the Cross; the 14th of September, the feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, commemorated above all the circumstances in which Heraclius recovered from the Persians the True Cross, which they had carried off. Nevertheless, it appears from the history of the two feasts, which we have just examined, that that of the 13th and 14th of September is the older, and that the commemoration of the Finding of the Cross was at first combined with it.

DRESS IN CHURCH

Entry to the church is forbidden for those not conforming to following standards of Christian modesty, including wearing the following: Clothing with a low neckline, sleeveless garments which expose the shoulders, clothing that exposes the knees or upper legs (whether sitting or standing), clothing that exposes the stomach or back, extremely tight-fitting clothing or clothing made of see-through material. All of this information appears on the signs on the doors.

For more information on the virtue of modesty and the true ideal to which we as Catholics should strive, various materials will be made available in the back of church. Please check from time to time for new arrivals.

Recognizing the difficulty women especially face in this endeavor, a helpful parishioner has compiled a list of clothing vendors that she hopes others will find useful.
