- Dec. 6,7—First Friday and First Saturday
- Dec. 13—Troops of St. George

The Regina Caeli Schola at Sacred Heart is in need of new choir members. The only requirement is the ability to match pitch. We meet on Sunday mornings at 8:30 am for practice and once a month on Saturday morning after 9:00 am Mass. Please prayerfully consider participating in this vital ministry. If interested or have any questions contact Teresa Smith at 260-820-1662 or email teresaLsmith2000@yahoo.com.

VOLUNTEER NEEDED

Although it is still early, we are looking for a volunteer to purchase and arrange the flowers for the altar for Christmas and Easter. We have a budget determined by how much we take in using the flower envelopes. Last year it was quite substantial, and some beautiful arrangements were made. If you are able to help in this manner please contact the pastor.

FORMALITY AND INFORMALITY IN THE LITURGY

From The Case for Liturgical Restoration, Joseph Shaw, editor (Angelico Press, 2019) p. 239. Thanks to Angelico Press for giving permission.

One important contrast between the Ordinary and Extraordinary Forms is in the role of formality in each. In the Extraordinary Form there is great formality in what is going on in the sanctuary, but the behavior of the congregation is not governed by binding rules about bodily posture, there are few, if any responses and, as Pope Pius XII reiterated, the faithful are free to say their own prayers. Indeed, children are clearly an example of Pius XII's point about the varied needs of worshippers:

“So varied and diverse are men's talents and characters that it is impossible for all to be moved and attracted to the same extent by community prayers, hymns and liturgical services. Moreover, the needs and inclinations of all are not the same, nor are they always constant in the same individual. Who, then, would say, on account of such a prejudice, that all these Christians cannot participate in the Mass nor share its fruits? On the contrary, they can adopt some other method which proves easier for certain people; for instance, they can lovingly meditate on the mysteries of Jesus Christ or perform other exercises of piety or recite prayers which, though they differ from the sacred rites, are still essentially in harmony with them.”

The Ordinary Form, particularly when presented to children, allows for many options and a degree of spontaneity in its words and action, but efforts are often made to impose a more complex structure of behavior on the congregation, with detailed instructions as to posture, a great many responses, and even gestures. The structured and predictable nature of the usus antiquior's texts and ceremonies facilitates the gaining of familiarity with ceremonies that are themselves deeply expressive and dramatic. The relative informality of the nave, in turn, is less demanding on the behavior, particularly, of small children, who need neither be forced to perform a great many actions that they do not understand, nor be interrupted in a more meaningful contemplative engagement with the liturgy.

The very first TROOPS OF SAINT GEORGE troop has been officially established in Northeastern Indiana! TSG looks a lot like Boy Scouts, but is completely different. It's a Catholic fraternity of Fathers, Sons (Ages 6-18), and Priests - the goal is Sainthood and virtue. Adventure, the outdoors, hiking, camping, hunting, shooting, fishing, and survival skills are the canvas. If you'd like more information or to sign up, please email Ben Becker at beckbej719@gmail.com or call 260-619-1373. Dads, this is an exciting NEW Catholic movement that will bring your relationship with your sons to the next level, on the journey towards love of Christ, holiness, and sainthood. Don't miss this AWESOME opportunity to grow your relationship with your sons/grandsons/nephews. CHECK OUT our NEW informational website & share it! www.troopsfw.org

MASS REQUESTS

If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket or hand it to the priest. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests. Everything must be together at the time the request is made. Please note that Mass stipends are NOT tax-deductible according to IRS regulations.
