MILITIA OF ST. JOSEPH Terror of Demons - Are you tired of lukewarmness, restlessness and mediocrity in your life? Want to RADICALLY deepen your faith - taking your life to the NEXT LEVEL? Step up your game with other like-minded devout Catholic men looking for MORE — striving for SAINTHOOD daily together, as we grow fervently in devotion while waging spiritual combat under the banner of St. Joseph the Terror of Demons! As Christ told us in Matthew 7:14, the path to Salvation is narrow and hard, and FEW find it. The stakes are too high to pin eternity on anything less than 100% effort. Come to our monthly meeting on the third Friday of every month at Sacred Heart! Holy Mass at 6pm followed by food & meeting 6:30-8:30. For details and RSVP visit: www.MilitiaSJ.com or text 260-619-1373.

MEALS FOR MOMS

A new endeavor has begun at our parish. “Meals for Moms” will provide a simple way for parishioners to coordinate bringing meals to families who have recently welcomed a new baby. To add your name to the list of those potentially willing to bring a meal to someone, or if you will soon be welcoming a baby and would like to receive meals, please send an email to Emily at mikebem@earthlink.net or call Barbara at 517-781-6360.

SAVE THE DATE: GIRLS' CAMP!

Sacred Heart Parish has again invited the Sisters, Slaves of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, from Still River, MA, to visit our parish and run a day camp for girls in the spring. The camp will be March 12-14, 2020. Details and registration forms will be available soon. For more information about the Sisters, please visit:

PATER NOSTER (concl.)

Having thus prayed, following the teaching of Our Lord Himself, that God's kingdom may come, that His Glory may be realised in all creation, the Priest adds the other four Petitions of the Lord's Prayer, which treat of that which is necessary for ourselves. Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie. Here we ask for our daily bread; God so understands it, and Our Lord thus points out to us, by bidding us say only daily bread, that it is useless to be preoccupied without cause, seeing that we do not even know if we shall be alive to-morrow. But we are asking bread, not for the body only, but also for the soul, which likewise needs food. For this reason, one of the Evangelists has it: panem nostrum supersubstantialem da nobis hodie (Matth. vi. 11). Lo! this Bread is on the Altar; there it is to feed our souls; and now is the moment to ask It of God. - Then, as we are sinners, it behoves us to beg for pardon Et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris; yea, forgive what ever we have done against thee. And we ourselves mark the measure of this our pardon, by begging Him to forgive us, as we forgive them that trespass against us. - Et ne nos inducas in tentationem, and lead us not into temptation, that is to say, ward and defend us when temptation strikes us. Although it be in the designs of God that we should thus be tried, in order that we may gain merit, still may we beseech Him to spare us therein, for we are weak and may so easily fall. Sed libera nos a malo, but deliver us from evil. Here two things must be understood: we ask to be delivered from evil, from the evil one, that is the devil, who is ever seeking to make us fall into evil. Moreover, if we have committed it, we beg of God mercifully to withdraw us from its grasp. *“This does not mean that man's forgiveness is the measure of God's, but that the more mercy we show “to others, the more will be extended to ourselves.”
