AGNUS DEI

(Taken from Notes Made at the Conferences of Dom Prosper Guéranger)

After this mingling, the Priest bowing before the Most Holy Sacrament, and joining his hands, recalls the words of Saint John Baptist and says: Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. These words could hardly be better introduced than now. Thus it is that Holy Church is wont to seek everywhere, the most lovely things in order to blend them together in one beautiful whole, in the great action of the Holy Sacrifice. Therefore does she take up the song which the angels sing in Heaven, and she too cries with them: Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth. Then she adds the gladsome shout of the Hebrew children: Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. But now she sings with the Precursor Agnus Dei. Yea, at this moment, the Lord is verily and indeed Himself the immolated Lamb, and twice does she implore of him, who hath taken our sins upon him, to have mercy on us, miserere nobis. The third time she adds: Dona nobis pacem, because the Eucharist is, as we have said, the Sacrament of peace, by means of which all the faithful become united together.

In Masses of the Dead, instead of miserere nobis, there is said dona eis requiem, and the third time, sempiternam is added, which very clearly expresses the character of the petition we are making for the souls of the faithful departed; we are asking for them, not now, as formerly, union in peace, but rest in the Eternal Peace.

ST. PIUS X ON MODERNISM

(from the encyclical Pascendi Dominici Gregis)

First of all they [Modernist heretics] lay down the general principle that in a living religion everything is subject to change, and must change, and in this way they pass to what may be said to be, among the chief of their doctrines, that of Evolution. To the laws of evolution everything is subject - dogma, Church, worship, the Books we revere as sacred, even faith itself, and the penalty of disobedience is death . . . The chief stimulus of evolution in the domain of worship consists in the need of adapting itself to the uses and customs of peoples, as well as the need of availing itself of the value which certain acts have acquired by long usage. Finally, evolution in the Church itself is fed by the need of accommodating itself to historical conditions and of harmonising itself with existing forms of society.

The Kroger Community Rewards Program has earned Sacred Heart $122.50 for the last quarter, with 33 households participating. If you have not already done so, please register your card by visiting krogercommunityrewards.com and following the simple instructions, your Kroger purchases will begin to benefit the parish, with a small percent of what you spend being returned to the parish quarterly. Our organization number is TP793, Sacred Heart Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana. This costs neither you nor the parish anything.

PARISH FINANCES

Financial reports for the last 7 years are available on the table in the back of church along with the current quarterly report. We had a routine audit performed by the diocese in December, with no problems of note uncovered. Please note that the fiscal year ends June 30, so have now just finished with the second quarter of the fiscal year. The next finance committee meeting will be April at 4:00 pm in the parish office, and is of course open to the public. Our finance committee members are David McClamrock (Allen Co. deputy prosecuting attorney), Mark Johnston (Attorney at law), and Brian Eichman (Certified Public Accountant).

MASS REQUESTS

If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket or hand it to the priest. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests. Everything must be together at the time the request is made. Please note that Mass stipends are NOT tax-deductible according to IRS regulations.
