TEACHING SERIES — THE CARDINAL VIRTUES

There will be a teaching series offered on Wednesday evenings, Jan. 22, 29, Feb. 5 and 12, after the 6 pm Mass. The series will cover the moral virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance in great detail, based on the teachings of St. Thomas Aquinas and the Christian philosophic tradition. Please bring a snack; drinks will be provided.

2019 CONTRIBUTION REPORTS

The yearly statements reporting donations to the parish are available at the back of church. Please pick yours up. Thanks to everyone for a great year!

YOUNG LADIES' SODALITY

The Young Ladies' Sodality will meet on Friday, February 7 at 4 p.m. in the school building. The sodality aims to help girls grow in their faith and learn to live the liturgical year while also cultivating good friendships. Each meeting includes a short talk by our Pastor as well as a craft activity related to the month's topic. All girls of the parish ages 6 and older are welcome. For more information, please contact Barbara: bpestritto@gmail.com

The Kroger Community Rewards Program has earned Sacred Heart $122.50 for the last quarter, with 33 households participating. If you have not already done so, please register your card by visiting krogercommunityrewards.com and following the Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts after the 8:00 AM Mass on the first Sunday of the month, or after the 10:00 AM Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month. This is also the time to visit our small lending library of good Catholic books and media. This is located just across from the bathrooms in the school basement.

Blessing of religious objects takes place after Mass on the third Sunday of every month. Please leave your objects on the designated table in the school basement.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary (the English-speaking seminary of the FSSP) won the 20th annual Father Pat O'Malley Invitational Basketball Tournament held at Mundelein Seminary just north of Chicago. This is the second straight year that Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary was tournament champions. This is the only national Catholic basketball tournament, featuring 16 seminaries from throughout the United States.

Sacred Heart was well represented on the team by seminarians Nicholas, James, and Christopher Eichman who provided the bulk of the scoring for the team. Nicholas was awarded the Most Valuable Player trophy for the tournament. The team played six hard fought games in less than 40 hours to capture the title.

Congratulations to Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary, coach Fr. Joseph Lee, and the team!

PARISH FINANCES

Financial reports for the last 7 years are available on the table in the back of church along with the current quarterly report. We had a routine audit performed by the diocese in December, with no problems of note uncovered. Please note that the fiscal year ends June 30, so have now just finished with the second quarter of the fiscal year. The next finance committee meeting will be April at 4:00 pm in the parish office, and is of course open to the public. Our finance committee members are David McClamrock (Allen Co. deputy prosecuting attorney), Mark Johnston (Attorney at law), and Brian Eichman (Certified Public Accountant).

MASS REQUESTS

If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket or hand it to the priest. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests. Everything must be together at the time the request is made. Please note that Mass stipends are NOT tax-deductible according to IRS regulations.

PRAYERS BEFORE THE COMMUNION

(Taken from Notes Made at the Conferences of Dom Prosper Guéranger)

Now comes the Prayer of Peace: O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, Who, by the will of the Father and the co-operation of the Holy Ghost, hast by Thy death given life to the world: deliver me by this, Thy most sacred Body and Blood, from all my iniquities and from every evil; make me cling always to Thy commandments, and permit me never to be separated from Thee. Who with the same God, the Father and the Holy Ghost, livest and reignest God, world without end. Amen.

Such is the Formula whereby the Priest petitions for peace and union amongst the faithful, at the very moment when they are about to partake of the Holy Mysteries. This Prayer is not said in Masses of the Dead. When it is ended, the Priest who is celebrating the Mass, gives the Peace to the Deacon, who gives it to the Sub-Deacon, by whom it is passed, in like manner to the Choir. If the celebrant is a Bishop, he gives the Peace to the Assistant Priest, who, in his turn, passes it to the Choir, whilst the Deacon and Sub-Deacon approach to receive it directly from the Prelate himself.

As to the Celebrant, he takes the Peace, by kissing the Altar, in front of the Sacred Host. Thus, it is our Lord Himself who gives it to him. A plate of precious metal (called for that reason instrumentum pacis), may be used for the giving of the Peace; in which case, the Celebrant kisses this plate, after having kissed the Altar. Should there be present any Princes, Princesses, or other personages of high rank whom it is fitting thus to honour, the instrumentum pacis is taken to them, to kiss in their turn.
