FIRST FRIDAY

A reminder that this Friday is the First Friday of the month.

Our Lord made the following promise to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque: "I promise you in the excessive mercy of My Heart that My all-powerful love will grant to all those who shall receive communion on the First Friday in nine consecutive months the grace of final penitence; they shall not die in My disgrace nor without receiving their sacraments; My Divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment."

Friday -- Confessions at 5:30 pm, Mass at 6 pm followed by Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, Sacred Heart devotions and Benediction.

54-DAY ROSARY

The Kroger Community Rewards Program has earned Sacred Heart $130.17 for the last quarter, with 40 households participating. If you have not already done so, please register your card by visiting krogercommunityrewards.com and following the simple instructions, your Kroger purchases will begin to benefit the parish, with a small percent of what you spend being returned to the parish quarterly. Our organization number is TP793, Sacred Heart Church, Fort Wayne, Indiana. This costs neither you nor the parish anything.

St. Vincent de Paul "Brown Bag Collection"

Please continue to help our food bank here at Sacred Heart by taking a brown bag and filling it with non perishable foods. Every Friday the St. Henry-Sacred Heart St. Vincent de Paul Society has a food bank that is open to anyone living in the Fort Wayne area. Please bring the filled bag back by the 2nd Sunday of each month and it will be exchanged with another empty brown bag. This gives everyone an opportunity to help feed the poor in our city with this corporal work of mercy. Thanks in advance to all those who help keep the food bank in operation. Please note that though the food bank has moved to St. Henry's for the convenience of the patrons, we nevertheless continue to assist it.

Masses for the Dead

In the Roman Missal, certain days are set apart for a special commemoration of the deceased. In addition to the Mass of Burial, also called the exsequial Mass, Masses on the third, seventh, and thirtieth day after death were often offered, and special prayers exist in the Missal for this purpose. In addition, the anniversary of death is also especially noted, having its own proper orations in the Requiem Mass. These practices have surprising antiquity in the Roman Church. Fr. Jungmann elaborates:

"As early as 170 there is evidence... that in Asia Minor a eucharistic memorial for the dead was conducted on the third day after burial; this took place at the grave. The anniversary commemoration is no more recent. In the fourth century the commemoration on the seventh day and on the thirtieth day became known..."

As Catholics we are obliged in justice to pray and offer sacrifice for the souls of our departed relatives, most especially for our parents and grandparents. We should endeavor as much as we are able to have Masses offered on the anniversaries of the deaths of our close relatives. We will not only free them from purgatory sooner, but we will give good example to those who come after us, so that we ourselves will be able to benefit from the sacrifices that they will offer on our behalf after we have passed into the next life.

If you wish to have a Mass offered for a loved one on one of these special days (realistically only the 30 days after death and anniversary of death will be possible in a typical parish setting) please write that information down when you make your Mass request, and every effort will be made to celebrate Mass on that day, and it will be noted in the bulletin.
