34th ANNUAL BISHOP'S APPEAL

The Annual Bishop's Appeal is underway. There is no update this week due to the pastor's absence. Again, the pastor requests that as many people as possible consider pledging online at diocesefwsb.org/aba and consider making a recurring pledge, rather than simply a one-time gift. Thank you to all who have already made a pledge, and remember, any funds over goal come back to the parish!

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

ALL SAINTS' DAY PARTY AND POTLUCK

The 5th annual All Saints' Day Party and potluck will be held on Sunday, Nov. 1, after the 10 a.m. Mass. There will be a costume contest, carnival games, and trivia! Please bring a dish to share at the potluck and plan to stay for the party that follows. All children and young adults are welcome to dress as a saint and enter the costume contest. Keep your saint a secret, since the judges have to guess! In order for us to know how many children to expect at the party, please make use of the sign-up sheet in the vestibule, or online at:

MASS REQUESTS

If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket or hand it to the priest. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests. Everything must be together at the time the request is made. Please note that Mass stipends are NOT tax-deductible according to IRS regulations.

From the encyclical of Leo XIII Adjutricem populi, one of his encyclicals on the Rosary:

The mystery of Christ's immense love for us is revealed with dazzling brilliance in the fact that the dying Saviour bequeathed His Mother to His disciple John in the memorable testament: "Behold thy son." Now in John, as the Church has constantly taught, Christ designated the whole human race, and in the first rank are they who are joined with Him by faith. It is in this sense that St. Anselm of Canterbury says: "What dignity, O Virgin, could be more highly prized than to be the Mother of those to whom Christ deigned to be Father and Brother!" With a generous heart Mary undertook and discharged the duties of her high but laborious office, the beginnings of which were consecrated in the Cenacle. With wonderful care she nurtured the first Christians by her holy example, her authoritative counsel, her sweet consolation, her fruitful prayers. She was, in very truth, the Mother of the Church, the Teacher and Queen of the Apostles, to whom, besides, she confided no small part of the divine mysteries which she kept in her heart.

It is impossible to measure the power and scope of her offices since the day she was taken up to that height of heavenly glory in the company of her Son, to which the dignity and luster of her merits entitle her. From her heavenly abode she began, by God's decree, to watch over the Church, to assist and befriend us as our Mother; so that she who was so intimately associated with the mystery of human salvation is just as closely associated with the distribution of the graces which for all time will flow from the Redemption.
