MASS REQUESTS

If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket or hand it to the priest. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. If deceased, please provide the anniversary of death so that, schedule permitting, a requiem mass may be said on that day. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests. Everything must be together at the time the request is made. Please note that Mass stipends are NOT tax-deductible according to IRS regulations.

Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts after the 8:00 AM Mass on the first Sunday of the month, or after the 10:00 AM Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month. This is also the time to visit our small lending library of good Catholic books and media. This is located on the first floor of the school building (Classroom #5).

Blessing of religious objects takes place after Mass on the third Sunday of every month. Please leave your objects on the designated table in the school basement.

Second Sunday after Epiphany

YOUNG LADIES' SODALITY

Will not meet in the month of January, please mark your calendars for the next meeting on February 3rd.

HANDMAIDS OF ST. JOSEPH

January 18th Sacred Heart Women's Group - CHANGE OF COURSE: We will be changing our subject matter for Women's Group to Fr. Savoie's teaching on the Old Testament book of Judith. Our format remains unchanged:

- 5 pm – Holy Hour with Fr. Savoie available to hear Confessions (Optional)
- 6 pm Mass
- 6:30 pm – Potluck Dinner
- 7 pm – 8 pm – Fr. Savoie teaching on Judith with Q and A

The Women's group meets every 3rd Wednesday of the month and follows the above format. The group is open to women 16 years and older and from every state in life. THIS IS A GOOD TIME FOR NEW LADIES TO JUMP IN – THE BEGINNING OF A NEW COURSE.

VISITING PRIESTS

Fr Gregory and Nicholas Eichmann FSSP will be assisting Sacred Heart parish during Fr Savoie's absence from Jan. 7th—13th. Thank you fathers for your generosity in aiding us while we are down to one priest.

SCIENCE FAIR

The Sacred Heart Parish Homeschool Science Fair will be held on Saturday, February 25, 2023. Children in grades 1-12 are welcome to participate. This is a fun and educational experience for students, and it can easily be part of their schoolwork. The registration fee is $5 per child or $10 for a family with 2 or more participating children. The deadline to register is January 16. For more information, or if you have children who are interested in participating, please contact Barbara: bpestritto@gmail.com, or access a registration form online: <https://tinyurl.com/y2spm7rn>.

ST. AGNES AND THE PALLIUM — JAN. 21

(From the 1917 Catholic Encyclopedia)

The modern pallium is a circular band about two inches wide, worn about the neck, breast, and shoulders, and having two pendants, one hanging down in front and one behind. The pendants are about two inches wide and twelve inches long, and are weighted with small pieces of lead covered with black silk. The remainder of the pallium is made of white wool, part of which is supplied by two lambs presented annually as a tax by the Lateran Canons Regular to the Chapter of St. John on the feast of St. Agnes, solemnly blessed on the high altar of that church after the pontifical Mass, and then offered to the pope. The ornamentation of the pallium consists of six small black crosses — one each on the breast and back, one on each shoulder, and one on each pendant. The crosses on the breast, back, and left shoulder are provided with a loop for the reception of a gold pin set with a precious stone. The pallium is worn over the chasuble.

The use of the pallium is reserved to the pope and archbishops, but the latter may not use it until, on petition they have received the permission of the Holy See. Bishops sometimes receive the pallium as a mark of special favour, but it does not increase their powers or jurisdiction nor give them precedence. The pope may use the pallium at any time. Others, even archbishops, may use it only in their respective dioceses, and there only on the days and occasions designated in the "Pontificale" (Christmas, the Circumcision, and other specified great feasts; during the conferring of Holy orders, the consecration of abbots, etc.), unless its use is extended by a special privilege. Worn by the pope, the pallium symbolizes the plenitudo pontificalis officii (i.e. the plenitude of pontifical office); worn by archbishops, it typifies their participation in the supreme pastoral power of the pope, who concedes it to them for their proper church provinces. An archbishop, therefore, who has not received the pallium may not exercise any of his functions as metropolitan, nor any metropolitan prerogatives whatever; he is even forbidden to perform any episcopal act until invested with the pallium. Similarly, after his resignation, he may not use the pallium; should he be transferred to another archdiocese. He must again petition the Holy Father for the pallium. The new palliums are solemnly blessed after the Second Vespers on the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul, and are then kept in a special silver-gilt casket near the Confessio Petri until required. The pallium is conferred in Rome by a cardinal-deacon, and outside of Rome by a bishop; in both cases the ceremony takes place after the celebration of Mass and the administration of the oath of allegiance.
