If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. If deceased, please provide the anniversary of death so that, schedule permitting, a requiem mass may be said on that day. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests.

Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts after the 8:00 AM Mass on the first Sunday of the month, or after the 10:00 AM Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month. This is also the time to visit our small lending library of good Catholic books and media. This is located on the first floor of the school building (Classroom #5).

Blessing of religious objects takes place after Mass on the third Sunday of every month. Please leave your objects on the designated table in the school basement.

AN OCTAVE COMPLETE

The Octave of Easter from ancient custom runs from the evening of Holy Saturday until the evening of following Saturday, hence today's collect puts Easter in the past tense, "we who have celebrated the Paschal Feast.." This Sunday, "Quasimodo" takes its Introit from 1 Peter 2:2, "as newborn babes..." referring to those who have just entered the life of Faith by their baptism on Holy Saturday. Being now born again, one is now expected to nurture and grow in faith. Life in Christ does not terminate with Easter it commences. The Gospel for today forms a perfect capstone to the Feast of Easter and an introduction to the building up of the life of faith afterward. In John's gospel Christ appears to His apostles on the evening of Easter Sunday and then again eight days later (today) with St Thomas present. Life after death is tied to having one's sins forgiven by those who were given the authority and faith is defined in believing the selfsame apostles' testimony concerning Christ. The newly born in Christ are to be continuously nurtured in the faith by receiving the sacraments entrusted to the apostles and must receive continued instruction on the apostolic testimony. The apostles saw, heard and touched the risen Lord. Our faith is built upon hearing their testimony. This is how we come to be: "blessed are they that have not seen, and have believed."
