MASS REQUESTS

If you desire a Mass to be celebrated for a particular intention, please place the offering along with the specific intention in writing in an envelope clearly marked Mass Intention and place it in the collection basket. For intentions for a specific individual, make sure to specify whether the person is living or deceased. If deceased, please provide the anniversary of death so that, schedule permitting, a requiem mass may be said on that day. Alternatively, you can approach the pastor or bring or mail the request to the church. We do not accept telephoned or emailed requests.

Please join your fellow parishioners for coffee and donuts after the 8:00 AM Mass on the first Sunday of the month, or after the 10:00 AM Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month. This is also the time to visit our small lending library of good Catholic books and media. This is located on the first floor of the school building (Classroom #5).

Blessing of religious objects takes place after Mass on the third Sunday of every month. Please leave your objects on the designated table in the school basement.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

CHILDREN CHOIR CHANT CLASS

In an effort to provide the Church for future generations and for your children's cultural education, our choir director will be conducting a regular chant class. In order to sing at the Mass, one must attend at least one of the sessions; Thursday 12:30pm and Saturday 10am. Please enroll any of your children ages 8-13, by contacting, Ryan Kennedy ryankennedyorganist@gmail.com

PILGRIMAGE TO MARIA STEIN CHAPEL

A group from our parish is planning to visit the Maria Stein Relic Shrine on Tuesday, May 9. The shrine is located in Maria Stein, OH:

<https://www.mariasteinshrine.org/>

We will meet there at 11 a.m. to visit the relic chapel and tour the museum. There is a nice picnic area as well, if you wish to pack a lunch. All are welcome. If you would like more details please contact Barbara Pestritto (bpestritto@gmail.com)

MOTHER'S DAY CARNATION SALE

On Sunday, May 14 after both Masses, there will be carnations for sale outside the back and side doors of the church. This is a fundraiser for the Northeastern Indiana Right to Life (formerly Allen Country Right to Life). Fr. Savoie encourages all the children to support this organization while showing devotion to their mothers. The suggested donation is $2 per flower.

MAY CROWNING

On Sunday, May 14, Fr. Savoie will lead the parish in a rosary at 9:20. Following the rosary, the Young Ladies Sodality will process in and present flowers to Mary and crown her.

WELCOME THE PILGRIM VIRGIN OF FATIMA TO YOUR HOME

Would you like honor Our Lady of Fatima and increase devotion to her in your family? Sacred Heart has a traveling Pilgrim Virgin of Fatima statue to offer parishioners for them to bring into their homes. Please sign up in the back of church to reserve your time with the statue for a period of one week. Pick up and return is between the two Sunday Masses to the assigned recipients. Her statue travels in a suitable wooden box with a prayer booklet. Her visit is an excellent time to establish your daily family rosary, invite additional family and friends to pray with you and to consecrate yourself and your family to her Immaculate Heart. If you have any questions, please contact Carole Bills at (260) 212-2972.

SACRED HEART TEEN GROUP

Sacred Heart teens (ages 13-19) are invited to a gathering on May 19 after the 6 pm Mass. These gatherings will be held monthly on third Fridays. Dinner will be a meatless potluck, so please bring a main course, side dish, or dessert to contribute to the meal. Fr. Savoie will give a short talk following dinner, after which we will begin some games and socializing. RSVP's are not necessary but would be greatly appreciated. If you have a question, would like to RSVP, or be added to the email list, contact Gianna Barry (gtbarry06@gmail.com).

THE APOSTLES PHILIP AND JAMES

The joint feast of Philip and James derives from the dedication of Basilica built to honor the twelve apostles. Construction of the Basilica began by Pope Julius I, rebuilt by Pope Pelagius I, and finally dedicated by Pope John III (560-73) to the memory of all the apostles, and in particular of Philip and James, so that the two titles; "Basilica of the Holy Apostles," and "The Basilica of the Apostles Phillip and James" were both in use for some time. The title of the Church, in conjunction with the difficulties of that time, created the association and the two names have remained a unit ever since in the Roman Liturgy.

The death of emperor Justinian in 565 left Rome abandoned and vulnerable as Constantinople turned it's attention to more immediate problems on the opposite frontier caused by the Persians and the Arabs. The power vacuum in the west precipitated the Lombard invasion of Italy which overran much of northern Italy. The Lombards threatened the survival of Rome itself, and reintroduced the Arian heresy throughout the Italian peninsula. Secular authority in shambles and orthodoxy besieged. Pope John III looked to the future and consecrated a Basilica—the first built in the city from scratch. As if the ending of a chapter hit and a new one was commencing. An ancient inscription relates the history of the Basilica's dedication and the difficulties currently pressing on the Church in the 6th century.

"His predecessor had scarcely begun this building which Pope John brought to completion. A great-minded Pontiff, in those days of trouble, he was not deterred by fear of the world's destruction, but against the storms of man he opened this harbor of safety, whilst he made perpetual supplication to God. A second John he was in name, in austerity, in thought, and in word, who wisely fed sheep committed to his charge. He built this refuge whither his people might fly to wscape from the fangs of the ravening wolf."
